EXPLOSION AFTERMATH — One man was killed and another seriously injured when the 3,000 barrel oil storage tank they were working on exploded last Wednesday. The accident is still under investigation.

Fatal tank explosion

By David Menzies
Journal Staff Writer

An explosion of an oil storage tank last week at the Murphy Oil facility near Heinsburg has left one man dead and another recovering from multiple injuries in hospital.

Construction worker Melvin Waskiewich, 30, died instantly after a tank containing 3,000 barrels of oil ignited and exploded into a fireball at approximately 8:30 a.m., Wednesday.

Brent Bechthold, 21, is now in stable condition at University Hospital in Edmonton after suffering lacerations of the face, a fractured right leg, and a broken wrist.

The two men — both employees of Manem Construction Ltd. of Calgary — suffered their mishaps after plunging 30 feet to the ground when the huge tank exploded.

Bud McLean, vice-president of operations for Murphy Oil in Calgary, said the cause of the accident is still unknown.

He says both men were equipped with welding and grinding equipment, and if they were using this equip-

Chamber support for SafeGrad

Elk Point Chamber of Commerce voted at their May 7 meeting to once again support the RCMP-sponsored SafeGrad program.

Joan Palamarek was in attendance at the meeting and gave a brief presentation on the SafeGrad concept, under which students in the graduating class of F.G. Miller High School, Heinsburg High School and Frog Lake School sign a pledge not to operate a motor vehicle while impaired or to ride with an impaired driver, between noon on their graduation day and noon of the following day.

All three schools met the challenge last year.

Mrs. Palamarek passed around a pledge sheet, and collected a number of individual pledges as well as the pledge from the Chamber, for this worthwhile endeavor. The graduating classes who meet the challenge will receive the pledges designated for their schools and will turn over the funds to the charity of their choice.

The Chamber also voted to donate $200 to the Canada Day celebrations. In addition to this, the Chamber will again present plaques to two worthy young people in the Elk Point district as part of the Canada Day program. A committee to work on the Chamber float for the Canada Day parade is also being set up well in advance, in hopes of minimizing the last minute rush encountered last year.

Plans for the June 8 Bridge Opening are falling into place, with a meeting set for May 13 with a government representative in attendance to finalize some of the arrangements. As Chamber President Murray

Harper will be unable to attend the Opening ceremonies, another representative of the Chamber will be needed, to speak at that occasion.

With summer near at hand, tourism continues to be an important part of the Chamber agenda. Approval has been received for one position of Tourist Booth Attendant under the STEP grant program. It is expected that a young person will be hired under the program to assist the usual senior citizen staff, as a way in which the Chamber can help the young people of the community.

Tourism Committee Chairman Ron Barwick has decided against attending the Alberta Tourism Conference

Rain cancels walk-a-thon, golf tourney

Rain and unseasonable snow flurries in the early hours of Saturday morning forced cancellation of the Elk Point Lions Club's Journey For Sight walk-a-thon, which was scheduled for Saturday afternoon.

The Lions have re-scheduled the event for Saturday, May 31, at 1:00 p.m. (weather permitting?).

The Elk Point Golf and Country Club also cancelled their opening fun tournament because of the inclement weather, but have not yet rescheduled this event.

Lodge ready for seniors

Elk Point Heritage Lodge welcomed its first residents this weekend, with six seniors now making their home in the pleasant surroundings of the handsome new building.

Members of the Councils of the towns of St. Paul and Elk Point and the County of St. Paul, along with administrators of the County and Town of Elk Point, MLA John Drobot, Sunnyside Manor Foundation secretary Marge Lafortune and Sunnyside Manor Matron Rita Jean, and other guests toured the Lodge Friday evening, following a celebratory dinner prepared and served by the Lodge staff.

Elk Point Mayor Ed Buck called the new facility a "great accomplishment" and thanked Drobot for his efforts on the community's behalf in making the lodge a reality.

Maurice Depledge added his appreciation of the Foundation Board and Alberta Housing for "a tremendous amount of work" and pointed out the substantial difference between today's lodges and those of thirty years ago. Depledge reminded the staff that they "will be dealing with people who need help and understanding" and offered the further cooperation of the Board.

Newly re-elected MLA John Drobot congratulated both the Board for their accomplishments and the staff for their hospitality and excellent cuisine.

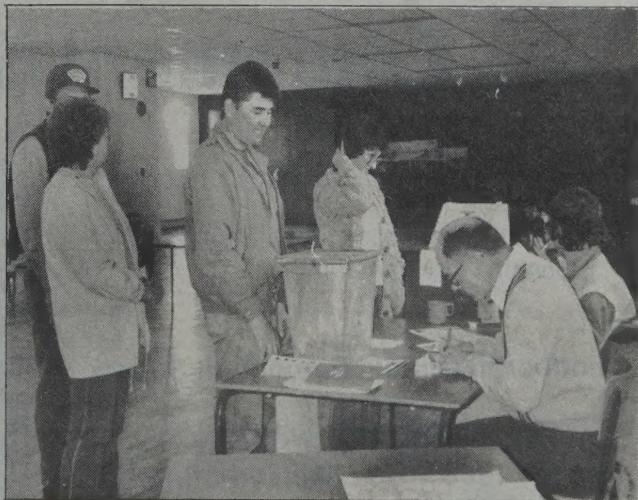

The guests then toured the lodge, which boasts accommodation for 43 residents in spacious bedroom-and-bath suites, including two with special facilities for the handicapped, and four pairs of connecting rooms for married couples.

The comfortable lounge, with groupings of chairs and sofas, tastefully accented with thriving green plants, has a cathedral ceiling at one end, along with a ceramic tiled wood-burning fireplace. This pleasant living area looks, as do a number of rooms, out on a garden area with cedar planters, enhanced with lighting at night. A folding "dividing wall may be used to close off a portion of the lounge for television watching or other quiet pursuits.

Auxiliary holds successful tea

By Irene Magnusson

The Annual Elk Point Hospital Auxiliary Tea, Bazaar and Home Bake Sale opened on schedule at 2:00 p.m. on Friday, May 9th, in the hospital waiting room. An eager crowd of purchasers surrounded the well-laden bake table, ready to make their selections as soon as the sale opened. This ceremony was performed by the hospital Administrator, Clem Johnson.

The rapid disappearance of the baked offerings attested to the esteem felt for the abilities of those who did the baking. It not only looks good - it IS good.

The plant section was soon cleared off, this being the time to replenish houseplants and acquire perennials for the coming season. A wide assortment of crafts - knitting, crocheting, sewing, quilting and novelty articles were displayed, proving once again that some ladies' hands are never idle. Slippers, baby garments, quilts, afghans - all were there - along with sweaters, toys, ornaments. The talents of the donors are undeniable.

And, of course, all the items were donated to the good causes espoused by the Hospital Auxiliary. To round out the fare, the lovely rug, hand-hooked by Mrs. Lyttle, along with the 2nd prize hand-hooked cushion, were drawn for, by Auxiliary member Audrey Lorensen. President Wasy Elashchuk announced the winners to be M.N. Bochan, 1st prize, and Jody Saranchuk, 2nd prize. Neither winner was present at the draw.

A delicious and well-patronized Tea was served in the hospital dining room, Auxiliary members assisted by the staff serving.

READY, SET — Eager purchasers crowded the edges of the home baking table at the Hospital Tea and Bazaar, waiting for the official 2 p.m. opening time.

HAND HOOKED BEAUTIES — The rug displayed by Auxiliary President Wasy Elashchuk, and the cushion on table at right were raffled by the Auxiliary, with M.N. Bochan winning the rug and Jody Saranchuk winning the cushion.

Borrowed from a 1960 Reader's Digest: My grandmother used to tell of a neighbour women she knew when they were both young women homesteading on the prairies. "I am always so glad," the neighbour told my grandmother one April day, "when the house is clean, the garden is planted and the baby born. Then I know that spring has come."

Did you vote?

To Vote Or Not To Vote -

That seems to be a question. And how it can be a question in this country, where our freedom to "vote as we please - but please vote," is envied in countries around the world, is beyond me.

Fifty per cent, they say. That is how many eligible voters exercised their right - to me, privilege - to vote. Only fifty per cent of the people of Alberta give a damn how our province is run, and by whom. To my way of thinking, that means that fifty per cent of the people of Alberta have no right to complain, to bellyache or criticize over a single thing done by the government during the next four years, or until the next election, whichever comes first.

Imagine, the cost of this election just past being an estimated $4,000,000, that all this money was wasted on half the electorate. Half of you didn't think it worth your precious time to think a little about the future, then go and cast your vote for the best choice. If things go contrary to your expectations, you should have nothing to say at all about it. You threw away your right to squawk.

I happen to be a person who loves to squawk, to complain when things aren't done according to my wishes. I enjoy criticizing government misdeeds, or lack of deeds. And I have a right to do so. I vote. Only once in my long, criticizing life, did I fail to vote - that time they closed the polls at 5 p.m., and I thought it would be open until 8 p.m. A lesson called "don't assume, check."

Council saves summer recreation programs

Summer recreation in Elk Point was pulled back from the brink of oblivion by approval of a twice-revised recreation budget at Town Council's regular meeting.

Discussion of the bare-bones 1986 operational budget, drastically revised by the Regional Recreation Board in an attempt to salvage the summer programs, ended in defeat by a 4-2 margin.

The cutbacks were made when the original budget met with disapproval from both the Town and County Councils. The Town of Elk Point had been willing to make up half of the deficit on that budget, but the County did not wish to contribute the other half, and the Town felt they could not afford to pay the entire shortfall.

Council subsequently decided to trim an additional $5,555 from the Town's contribution to the revised budget, and to increase the CRC grant allotment by the same amount, to make a budget the entire Council could agree on. "Back to Square One", commented Mayor Buck, noting that this budget would at least allow the summer recreational programs to be carried out.

In 1985, the total operating expenses of the Recreation Department equalled 3.8 percent of the municipal budget, while in 1984, the figure was 5 percent.

With the budget at long last settled, Council moved into discussion of hiring an applicant to fill a position approved under the Recreation Work Experience Program. The grant will provide total funding for the person who will run the summer recreation program for town and district residents. Since there is no longer a recreation director, the Town administration will provide supervision and support for the worker. Three applications have been received for the position.

Council news will be continued next week.

in Jasper, which he feels is not geared to assist small communities in northeast Alberta. Barwick and committee member Irene Magnusson will meet this week with the Chamber executive for further discussion regarding moving the Tourist Booth to the junction of Highway 41 and Secondary Highway 646.

Action will also be taken on a suggestion that the Chamber send a letter to the Town of Elk Point, asking that the CNR property along Railway Avenue be developed into overnight camping sites. This suggestion is by no means new to the Chamber, but has not gone past the discussion stage in previous years.

A long delayed decision to join both the Alberta and Canadian Chambers of Commerce was also made, with dues to be sent to both bodies immediately. It has been determined that both the Alberta and Canadian Chambers are of help to the local group.

ment, an errant spark could have ignited the oil in the tank.

But he adds that "all proper safety procedures seem to have been followed" as the storage tank was covered and the area around it was checked for natural gas leaks.

And, he says, Bechtold denies that he or Waskiewicz were using their welding or grinding equipment prior to the explosion.

"Right now there are a lot of theories as to what could have caused the explosion . . . but we're going to have to wait for the Alberta Occupational Health and Safety Division to make its report before we know for sure," McLean said.

He added Murphy Oil is also conducting its own investigation.

A spokesman for the Alberta Occupational Health and Safety Division said it will be a matter of weeks before investigators finalize a report on what caused the accident.

He added Waskiewicz was the first Alberta oil patch fatality of the year.

Cost of the damage was pegged at approximately $350,000.

County speakers present showcase

Over fifty talented young people from Junior and Senior High Schools throughout the County of St. Paul took part in the County Public Speaking Showcase in Elk Point last Thursday.

Students from Ashmont, Mallaig and Heinsburg joined with their counterparts from F.G. Miller Junior-Senior High to present a morning packed with original oratory, oral interpretation, choral speaking, dramatic monologues, solo acting and impromptu speeches.

This year's fresh new format resulted in a very interesting program, much enjoyed by the adjudicators and audience alike. Unlike other years, the use of costumes and props was allowed, and the old bugbear of 'writing a speech' was erased in many cases by the use of material by other authors, poets and playwrights.

Each speaker received a certificate of participation, because in a sense, all were winners, who had used their elocutionary talents to the best of their abilities to entertain their listeners.

Our apologies to the following Grade 8 speakers, whose picture did not turn out: Bryan Bepalko and Margaret Bayduza, F.G. Miller; Kari Barstad, Heinsburg; Karen Hebert and Troy Gratton, Mallaig; Brent Joly and Jennifer Lawton, Ashmont.

Cadets enjoy exercise

Thirty one members of the Vermilion Army Cadet Corps, including the Elk Point Platoon, spent the May 2, 3, and 4 weekend at the Elk Point Gun Club Range, taking part in a variety of outdoor activities.

Upon their arrival at the site Friday evening, the cadets found the access road washed away by spring runoff, preventing access by vehicles. Some of the cadets immediately set to work to rebuild the road, while others packed in supplies and equipment on foot and set up camp.

Saturday was mainly spent in shooting practise, with eight thousand rounds of ammunition aimed at the targets from FNC 1, 7.62 mm semi-automatic and .303 caliber Lee Enfield rifles.

An exciting part of the activities came when the cadets built a two-rope bridge across the creek, and took turns to cross a taut rope while hanging on to another rope high overhead, with a stretch of ice cold water several feet below.

Saturday evening, the cadets divided into four groups for a nighttime map and compass orienteering exercise, through the valley to the Elk Point Golf Course and back, while two 'enemy attackers' armed with blank shells attempted to ambush the patrols. The groups kept in contact by radio.

The three-day exercise wound up on Sunday, when the Vermilion cadets waved goodbye to the Elk Point platoon as they departed for home in the back of a Canadian Forces MLVW six-wheel-drive truck.

The Cadets, their leaders and instructors would like to thank the Gun Club for the use of their range, and report that they really enjoyed the weekend and the scenic area.

Dewberry News Roundup

By Cliff Cunningham
Dewberry Correspondent

The monthly Senior Citizens pot-luck supper was held at the Centre, April 30th with a good crowd turning out. Part of the crowd went home early to watch the last hockey game between Edmonton and Calgary. We all make mistakes and that's what the Edmonton player did when his shot went into their own net.

A large crowd turned out for the 25th Wedding Anniversary of Laurie and Donna Durin in the Elliott Pavilion north of Dewberry on May 3rd, put on by their family and relatives (pot-luck style) with all kinds of good food to choose from. We all wish you many more years of happy married life Laurie and Donna. After supper everyone enjoyed themselves dancing and meeting old friends. The music for the dance was supplied by an orchestra from Lloydminster, three men and one woman, and it was real good music.

Also, on May 3rd, Josephine Gray celebrated her 65th birthday at the Greenlawn Hall with her family and friends with a come and go tea and lunch. We all wish you many more happy birthdays Josephine, you are now a Senior Citizen.

On May 1st, Marge and Cliff Cunningham went to Edmonton for a check-up, with Herb and Doris Spicer, returning home the same day. Doris Spicer drove Marge and I to Elk Point for dinner and a drive around through the residential part of Elk Point on Marge's birthday, April 29th. There are a lot of nice new homes in the northwest part of Elk Point.

There was a musical comedy show at the school gym last week in the afternoon (Mikaclo or the Town of Titipu) with 4 men and two ladies acting. Some of the children had never seen that kind of a show except on T.V. With all the school children, teachers and others gathered in one room, it makes a large crowd.

It is about time to put in some garden. My advice is not to get in a hurry. Last year we had a hard frost on May 19th that froze some gardens that were up, and on June 1st we had another frost.

Our weather for the last week has been from 26 degrees above F to 60 above with some snow April 30th and lots of strong winds. On the way up to Edmonton, May 1st, there was more snow on the ground close to Edmonton than here.

More Dewberry and Wellsdale history. May 2nd, 1914 - gopher tail contest closed with prizes to R. Isert, P. Butz, H. Isert - 1st prize $2.00, second $1.50, third $1.00. June 6th, 1914 - picnic committee set date for picnic, June 20th. 2,500 lbs. binder twine ordered at $11.05 per cwt. from T. Eaton Co. 1,000 lbs. twine ordered from Grain Growers at $11.25 cwt. 400 lb. barrel of formaldehyde $50.00. Mrs. Minard to be a delegate to Edmonton convention of this local. Discussion on why commission prices on cattle and hogs differ between Islay and Kitscoty stockyards. An effort to organize a threshing route of local machines. No decision, so each thresherman bid on his jobs. Threshing machines in those days were owned by Grant, Butz, Minard and Moon.

July 3rd, 1915 - Alberta Liquor Act discussed by Vermilion clergyman J.C. Anderson. Aug. 1915 - Welsdale local to be reorganized with help from Dewberry. Meeting held in Welsdale School. Aug. 21st - Forward to Belgian relief fund $18.00.

May 6th, 1916 - A debate to take place on horses - versus tractor power for farm work.

July 8th, 1916 - R.A. Wilson offered to give his gasoline engine (free) to turn the ice cream freezer. Welsdale asked to take part in picnic the following year. Remittance to Red Cross fund $190.00 from proceeds of two entertainments. Reorganization of the U.F.A. board: President W.H. Anderson, Vice-President T. Saville, Secretary F. Hardwich, Directors: J. Smith, F. Minard, S. Irvin, R. Jack, Albert Isert and R.A. Wilson. Membership $1.50 each with local keeping 50 cents. 26 members were signed up until July 14th, year 1917.

May 5th, 1986 - I just received a phone call that Jim McDowall was taken to the Vermilion Health Care Complex on Sunday, with stomach trouble. Hope you are feeling better now Jim.

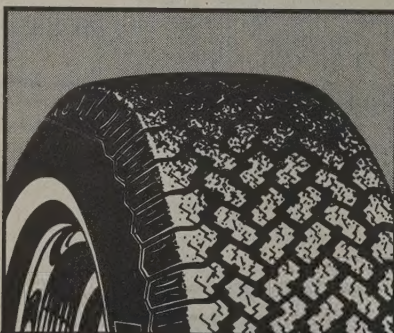

Part of the arena has a new roof on it and the other half will be done later on. Alex and Brenda Wyness have an addition built on to their trailer home. Frank and Nina Smith are having a carport built onto their house.
